

2021 Continuing Professional Education Seminar

Jubilee Banquet Facility, 6700 Jubilee Center Way, Knoxville, TN 37912

Saturday, May 22, 2021

8:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Registration and Breakfast 7:30 AM - 8:00 AM

Edward C. Wolff, PhD CEM

8:00 AM - 9:00 AM & 9:10 AM - 10:10 AM

"GPS/GPS Trackers"

Ed Wolff is a partner and licensed investigator with East Tennessee Investigations and Services. Ed has 40 years of real world experience across five continents in the field of investigations and crisis management. He spent 26 years as a full time law enforcement officer/investigator with a large agency where he retired as the Senior Detective Sergeant in the Office of Homeland Security and Counterterrorism supporting an FBI JTTF. Other assignments included SWAT, the Organized Crime Bureau, Special Investigations Unit-Narcotics, and the Detective Bureau working Part 1 crimes. For the past 14 years he has continued in the government sector as a consultant and advisor to federal and international agencies with a six year assignment at the Pentagon and currently assigned to NATO as a Crisis Manager. He has a Ph.D. in Education and a Masters Degree in Executive Leader, he is a graduate of the Southern Police Institute, The DEA Basic Drug Academy, and the National Intelligence Academy amongst others.

Cecil C. Mills, Jr.

Deputy District Attorney General

10:20 AM - 11:20 AM

"The Lillelid Case"

Cecil Mills serves as the Deputy District Attorney for the Third Judicial District Attorney General's office. He is also the senior pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church of Greeneville, Tennessee. He received a B.A. Degree from Carson Newman College in Jefferson City, Tennessee, and received a J.D. degree from the University of Tennessee College of Law in Knoxville. Cecil has served the boards of several local community agencies including, but not limited to the Greene County Partnership, the Boys and Girls Club of Greeneville and Greene County, the Girl Scouts of Appalachia Council, the Holston Methodist Home for Children, the Child Advocacy Center of the Third Judicial District, the American Red Cross and Comcare Incorporated. He has been a recipient of the Exchange Club of Greene County's "Golden Deeds Award" and the "Conscientious and Dedicated Community Service" award from the Africa to Appalachia Foundation of Morristown, Tennessee.

Lunch 11:20 AM - 12:30 PM

Shannon Gomez, Director of Sales, Paraben Corporation

12:30 PM - 1:30 PM

"Digital Data Triage on Mobile & Computer Devices"

Shannon Gomez has been involved in technology sales for over twenty-five years. Ms. Gomez started her career while at GA SED-Southern Electronic Distributor. Since that time, she moved to the digital forensics space while at ICS. She pioneered the company's growth in the forensics space with its unique forensic hard drive duplicator. While she was moving ahead in the forensics space, Ms. Gomez also built up a strong channel relationship with resellers worldwide. Ms. Gomez has represented Paraben Corporation at training conferences and industry events for over 14 years. Ms Gomez has assisted in mobile lab trainings for the last 9 years and has run sessions at the Crimes Against Children Conference. Ms Gomez is a graduate of Georgia Southern University with a Bachelor Degree in Communications.

Jamesena Walker, TBI Agent

1:40 PM - 2:40 PM

"Human Trafficking 101"

Jamesena Walker is a Special Agent with the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation and has been employed as such for 23 years. Agent Walker is currently assigned to investigate matters involving trafficking within the state of Tennessee, specifically in the Upper East TN region. Before investigating human trafficking crimes, she was assigned to the Joint Terrorism Task Force with the Federal Bureau of Investigation for 3 years. SA Walker worked in the Criminal Investigative Division as a Field Agent for 7 years and prior to that worked in the Drug Investigative Division of TBI for 7 years. SA Walker has a Bachelor of Science degree from Middle Tennessee State University in Criminal Justice and worked with the Murfreesboro Police Department for 2 ½ years before joining the TBI.

Joe Gray

Principal Instructor and Founder

The OSINTion

2:50 PM - 4:00 PM

"Leverage Adjacent Intelligence Disciplines to Improve OSINT Investigation Techniques"

Joe Gray, a veteran of the U.S. Navy Submarine Force, is the inaugural winner of the DerbyCon Social Engineering Capture the Flag (SECTF) and was awarded a DerbyCon Black Badge. Joe is also the Founder and Principal Instructor at The OSINTion in addition to the Founder and Lead Investigator at Transparent Intelligence Services. As a member of the Password Inspection Agency, Joe has consistently performed well in Capture the Flag events, specifically those involving OSINT. Examples include 2nd Place in the HackFest Quebec Missing Persons CTF and Winning the TraceLabs OSINT Search Party during DEFCON 28. Independently, Joe placed 4th in the DerbyCon OSINT CTF and 3rd in the National Child Protection Task Force Missing Persons CTF. Joe has contributed material for a variety of platforms such as Forbes and Dark Reading in addition to his platforms. Joe has authored the OSINT tools DECEPTICON Bot and WikiLeaker in addition to the forthcoming book, Practical Social Engineering, due in July 2021 via NoStarch Press.

TPIA Membership Meeting 4:00 PM - 5:00 PM